

Troubled Families Agenda

Phase 2: Thinking outside the tick box

16th October 2014

Passenger Shed, Brunel's Old Station

- 9.30 Registration
- 9.50 Chairperson Sherrie Eugene-Hart
- 10.00 Welcome from Assistant Chief Constable Kay Wozniak
- 10.10 Bristol's Troubled Families Programme; Lessons learnt Emily Ingle, Bristol Troubled Families Team
- 10.25 Portrait of a Family
Film
- 10.35 Troubled Families programme expansion Emma Jones,
Department of Communities and Local Government
Questions
- 11.05 Refreshments
- 11.35 Bristol; An early start Gary Davies, Bristol Troubled Families Coordinator
- 12.05 A relational approach to thinking about trouble - how can we help families best?
Effectiveness measures and learning from the Early Intervention Foundation
Honor Rhodes Director of Strategy, Tavistock Centre for Couple Relationships
Questions
Table reflection
- 1.10 Lunch
- 2.00 Performance Basement Studio
- 2.15 Integrating an effective response to domestic violence and abuse into front line services: a view from general practice
Professor Gene Feder, University of Bristol
Questions
- 2.55 How acting on the social determinants of health can reduce inequalities in children's outcomes.
Angela Donkin, Deputy Chief Executive Institute of Health Equity
Questions
- 3.35 Closing remarks
- 3.45 Evaluations
- 3.50 Close

